Sainte Catherine Apartments, Sainte Catherine, Brussels

DESCRIPTION

The Sainte Catherine serviced apartments are located on the edge of the historical town centre, just a short walk from La Grande Place which is famous for its Flemish baroque architecture and flower market. The self-catering studios and one bedroom apartments are perfect for those guests who require short-term business travel accommodation as there are plenty of public transport connections nearby for getting around the city. Each fully furnished apartment is equipped with a full kitchen, although there are numerous high-quality restaurants and eateries nearby. Guests will also enjoy television with satellite channels, direct dial telephone lines and individual safety deposit boxes. The house cleaning service is on a weekly basis but additional services are also available and are charged accordingly. There are also five wheelchair accessible apartments available for those with reduced mobility.
